

HOUSING RESOURCES

Homelessness prevention

ALL BOROUGHES

Homebase is a homelessness prevention system that offers rental assistance, help obtaining public benefits, and education and job placement assistance

Check out the website below

<https://www1.nyc.gov/site/hra/help/homelessness-prevention.page>

BRONX

BronxWorks is a coalition of homelessness prevention resources for Bronx residents. They will work with you to prevent eviction, to understand the legal process, and help you keep eviction threat from happening

Check out their website below

<http://www.bronxworks.org/eviction-prevention>

MANHATTAN

This program is centered around the Harlem area. Harlem United is a housing program available to those with HIV who need a place to live.

For more information

<https://www.harlemunited.org/programs/housing>

BROOKLYN

The Brooklyn Community Housing and Services offers the opportunity for housing and other services for at-risk women, children, and men.

Check out their programs down below

<https://bchands.org>

Contact these phone number for more helpful information

The Central Council of Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Some funds may be available for utility or rental assistance: 212-755-8615

Coalition for the Homeless

You must be in court, have a signed court stipulation, and have future ability to pay your ongoing rent: 212-964-5900

Palladia

Provides job training, child care and anti-eviction programs: 212-979-8800

Community Service Society-Homeless Prevention

Grants to those with mortgage or rent arrears who are at risk of losing their homes or being evicted: 212-254-8900

HOPE NOW Hotline

Free foreclosure prevention assistance: 888-995-HOPE